

Glenfarg Village Folk Club

Guest List

Please Note: — The Glenfarg Hotel is now open under new ownership, and we have returned to the Terrace Bar.

Glenfarg Village folk Club won the Music Club of the Year Award 2005 at the Scots Trad Music Awards held in the Queens Hall Edinburgh on 3rd December 2005.

Monday 6th March

Rosie Morton & Carrie Thomas

Rosie and Carrie are a brilliant clarsach and fiddle duo from Edinburgh. Rosie sings beautifully as well as playing clarsach. She was a student at RSAMD in Glasgow and a finalist in the 2004 Young Traditional Musician Competition. Carrie is an exceptionally fine fiddler and has also trained as an artist.

Sangsters

It's always a pleasure to hear the wonderful harmonies of four piece group Sangsters. Anne and Scott Murray, Fiona Forbes and John Blackwood perform an eclectic mix of songs old and new with guitars and spiced with Fiona's own brand of zany humour. Come along early to be sure of a seat.

Monday 20th March

Spring Session

Come along and share some songs or tunes poems and stories in the cosy atmosphere of the Terrace Bar

Monday 27th March

Duncan McCrone, Cy Jack and Stevie Lawrence

A warm welcome back to this trio of extremely talented musicians and singers. Duncan and Cy have played with many bands including

"The Clydesiders" and Stevie was with "Iron Horse" They combine their many skills and bring us some great songs and a huge array of instruments including guitars, keyboard, bouzouki and mandolin.

Monday 3rd April

John Malcolm

Originally from Dundee John sings traditional Scots and Irish songs alongside blues and his own highly acclaimed self penned songs. He will perform at this year's Ceilidh Culture event in Edinburgh with Stuart McHardy in their own show "Drink Edinburgh Dry"

Monday 10th April

Maeve McKinnon and Ali Hutton

Maeve Mackinnon is one of Scotland's foremost young Gaelic and Scots singers. She was a finalist in the BBC Radio Scotland Young Traditional Musician 2005 competition. Ali Hutton from Perthshire plays guitar, bouzouki, bodhran, whistle and pipes. He played with The Vale of Atholl Pipe band where his tutor was Gordon Duncan.

Nick Keir

Best known for his work with The McCalmans, Nick has a fantastic voice which makes you feel warm and comfortable, but, at the same time demands you listen to the words. Many of his songs reflect life in his beloved Edinburgh. He shows an unforced sense of humour which makes for a tremendous atmosphere at his shows.

A note for your diary.

The 28th Glenfarg Folk Feast will take place on 21, 22 & 23 April 2006
