Colcannon

Australia's Colcannon are always a great favourite wherever they tour. With instrumental arrangements as powerful as they are musical, and one of the most remarkable vocal sounds you will ever have the privilege of hearing. With countless TV appearances under their belt they are in great demand touring internationally to Canada, UK and New Zealand and have eight CDs to their credit. Please come along early tonight.

Monday 29th October

Marian Bradfield

Marian has been described as one of Ireland's hidden musical treasures. She is based in Donegal and has recorded three solo albums and one live album. She has been voted by readers of "Hot Press" as one of Ireland's top ten female singers and short listed by a panel of top music critics as one of Ireland's Best Solo Performers. She has an ever increasing fan base in Ireland, in America and across Europe. This will be Marian's first visit to Glenfarg, we look forward to hearing her sing.

Monday 5th November

Guy Fawkes Night Singaround / Session

There will undoubtedly be fireworks here tonight. Join us for some songs or tunes, be they fiery or cool, anything goes.

Monday 12th November

Annie Grace Trio

A Highland lass with a glorious voice, Annie first appeared at Glenfarg with the highly acclaimed band "Iron Horse". Toured with Scottish Women and is a member of 22-piece band The Unusual Suspects. Plays guitar, pipes and whistle. Annie's first solo album "Take Me Out Drinking Tonight" in 2004 received an overwhelming response. Annie will be appearing along with Aaron Jones and Jonny Hardie, from the Old Blind Dogs. A great night for the club!

Monday 19th November*Clive Gregson

Beneath a quirky sense of humour is one of the most talented songwriters in the British Isles. He plays regularly in Nanci Griffith's Blue Moon Orchestra. "Clive's solo shows are something special and definitely not to be missed" (The Independent)

Monday 26th November*Beck Sian

Beck was born in Australia with strong Celtic roots, and is related to Kate Bush. She describes her musical style as 'Haunted Forest Music' and her voice is as stunning as her looks. Beck's debut album ('Unfurling') features her prize-winning song 'Under Thunderous Skies'. 'She is charismatic, convivial and funny on stage, a real show stopper ... Unmissable!'

Monday 3rd December*Andy Irvine

Andy's biography reads like a Who's Who of Irish Traditional Music. He has played with Sweeney's Men, Planxty and Patrick Street. A world music pioneer and icon for traditional music, Andy has been described as 'Ireland's Woody Guthrie, with a philosopher's ear and a prophet's passionate voice'. (Si Kahn)

Friday 7th December

Ceilidh Dance with Neil and Gail Paterson in Milnathort Town Hall, at 8.00 p.m., BYOB

Monday 10th December*Tich Frier

Tich is a consummate entertainer who has joined the ranks of the finest singer-songwriters in Scotland as his new album 'Shanghaied' reveals. Great songs sung with passion and panache, accompanied by his driving guitar style.

Monday 17th December*Fireside session in the Hotel lounge

Seasonal songs to share around the fire with mince pies and mulled wine.
