

Please Note: — The Glenfarg Hotel is now open under new ownership. We have returned to the Terrace Bar.

Glenfarg Village folk Club won the Music Club of the Year Award 2005 at the Scots Trad Music Awards held in the Queens Hall Edinburgh on 3rd Dec.

Monday 23rd January
Burns Night Session

An informal session to celebrate the life, the songs and poems of our National Bard Robert Burns. In the best of company and with haggis, tatties and neeps as well.

Monday 30th January

Arthur Watson, Tom Spiers & Pete Shephard

All three are great performers of Scottish Traditional music and song, they founded the East of Scotland Song Group specifically to run the Fife Traditional Singing weekend which has now run very successfully for three years. Arthur, Pete and Tom share the vocals and add melodeon and fiddle accompaniment to their wide repertoire of songs and tunes.

Monday 6th February

Singaround / Session

Come along and share some songs or tunes poems and stories in the cosy atmosphere of the Terrace Bar

Monday 13th February

Keiran Halpin

A very welcome return visit from renowned Irish singer songwriter Kieran. A unique writer and performer, his work is as individual as Bruce Springsteen, Joni Mitchell, Paul Brady or John Martyn. Keiran has always looked for new and innovative ways to present his songs. A rare chance to hear him. Come along early to be sure of a seat.

Sunday 19th February 8.30 pm

Trivia Quiz Night in the Terrace Bar
With Quizmaster Hugh Hoffman

Monday 20th February

Lyra Celtica

Lyn Tocker, Frank McGuire and Chuck Fleming are the musicians in the trio Lyra Celtica. They play energetic, high spirited jigs and reels and beautiful airs with a few songs mixed in for good measure. Switching between fiddle, accordion, whistle and percussion each instrument shines in its own right and then blends seamlessly with the others to form a rich tapestry of quality music and fun.

Monday 27th February

Martyn Wyndham-Read

Born in England Martyn first developed his great interest in folk songs of the Australian outback when he went to Australia in the early 60s. There, while working on the South Australian sheep station “Emu Springs” he gained first hand experience of life as a bush worker. With 30 albums under his belt and many years experience combining songs, bush poetry recitations, stories and anecdotes of outback life and Australian history Martyn is one of the most engaging performers you’re ever likely to see.

Monday 6th March

Sangsters

Fiona Forbes, Anne Coombe, Scott Murray and John Blackwood make up the very popular and extremely talented close harmony group Sangsters. Very fine singing, delicious arrangements and vocal finesse are the hallmark of this group. Fiona’s zany sense of fun and unique style of presentation simply guarantees a really entertaining evening.

28th Glenfarg Folk Feast
21, 22 & 23 April 2006

Gill Bowman

Craobh Rhua

The Farg Folk

Jez Lowe & The Bad Pennies

Jim Payne & Fergus O’Byrne

Jenna Reid & Kevin McKenzie

John Wright with

Joe Wright & Pete Abbott

Neil Paterson & Friends

Grand Ceilidh Dance

Singing Competition

Proceeds will go to Glenfarg Playgroup

The theme is “Boys and Girls Come Out to Play”

21st World Puff-a Box Championship

Step-Dance Workshop with Jim Payne

Singarounds and Sessions

For further information contact

Graham Brotherston 01337 831116

Doris Rougvie 01738 583698

David Aird 01577 830370

www.glenfargfolkclub.co.uk