Monday 27th June

The Midden

The Midden are a group of brilliant young female musicians with Kate on vocals and guitar, Megan on violin and vocals and Hazel on whistles, bass, piano and vocals. Their voices and instruments blend together perfectly and create a unique sound that is theirs alone. On a recent tour of Germany they played to an ecstatic audience of 1500 people. They bring fun, joy and enthusiasm to the stage.

Monday 4th July

Tam White

Amazing blues singer and guitarist Tam White has been described as the greatest undiscovered blues talent of our time. His driving guitar style combined with his powerful compelling vocals create an overall brilliance that is hard to beat. Come along early to be sure of a seat.

Monday 11th July

The Frequent Flyers

The Frequent Flyers fuse contemporary and traditional country sounds using elements from the deep south to the east coast of America, Canada, Scotland and Ireland to create an exciting performance with a “down home” feel .A wildly energetic interplay of music, song and dance! With guitars, harmonica, double bass, fiddle, banjo and Appalachian step-dance. Kathy Stewart, Ken Kennedy, Matt Thompson and Melody Jane make up the band.

Monday 18th July

Summer Session

A chance to come along and share some songs and tunes in very good company. Our session nights are always very informal and great fun. If you don't want to sing or play just come for the company everybody is made welcome.

Monday 25th July

Colcannon

Colcannon are being widely recognised as the “Jewel in Australia's Folk Crown”. They hail from Adelaide in South Australia, the feel is slightly Celtic but the overall sound is strongly Australian. They have great vocal depth and wonderful harmonies, together with superb instrumental arrangements. It has been said, “If you look up harmony in the dictionary you will find a picture of Colcannon” They have been touring around the world and playing at major festivals to audiences of thousands and have made many friends and fans. Please come early to be sure of a seat. We look forward to hearing them play and sing in Glenfarg again.

Monday 1st August

No Strings Attached

A high energy four man Bluegrass band fronted by Mark Wallace and based in St.Andrews. These guys are the genuine article, three American musicians with banjo, bass and guitar, and a fiddler from Edinburgh, they are rapidly building up a fan base around Scotland. They have a great “old timey” sound with four voices in spine tingling close harmony. They brought the house down when they appeared to do a half hour set at our “Open Stage” last October! now we can look forward to a whole evening of their great music.

Sun 7th August

Treasure Hunt and barbeque See*

Mon 8th August

Iona

Based in America, Iona is the musical offspring of Barbara Ryan, vocals guitar and bouzouki, and Bernard Argent on whistles, wooden flute and doumbek. The other members of the band are the extremely talented Chuck Lawhorn on bass guitar, mandolin and whistle and sensational young fiddler Andrew Dodds. Together they present a high energy performance of songs and tunes with a Celtic flavour.
