GUEST LIST APRIL – MAY 2010

Unless otherwise stated, events take place in

The Glenfarg Hotel, Glenfarg, Perthshire

Starting at 8.30 pm

Monday 5th April

Members £5, Non-members £8

John Hinshelwood and Sandra Gellatly

John and Canadian vocalist Sandra sing a heady mix of finely crafted songs with thought provoking lyrics in Scottish roots, Americana, bluegrass and folk styles with skilful guitar accompaniment. As "The City Sinners" they performed a show based on the life and music of the late Gram Parsons.

Friday 9th, Saturday 10th & Sunday 11th April

32nd Glenfarg Folk Feast

Buy your tickets now, they are selling fast! Don't miss out on our exciting festival. Further details are shown below.

Monday 12th April

North Sea Gas

One of Scotland's most popular folk bands with great vocals and tremendous three part harmonies. A multi-instrumentalist group with guitars, mandolin, fiddle, bouzouki, bodhrans, banjo and good humour all part of the entertainment. With 14 albums to their credit and gold and silver disc awards from the Scottish Music Industry Association, these guys are flying high.

Monday 26th April

Members £8, Non-members £10

Alan Taylor

One of England's best singer songwriters, his songs are written from a lifetime of travelling, always the observer passing through. With his velvety voice and intricate guitar playing, and songs like "It's Good to see you", "Roll on the day", "Chimes at Midnight", each song is a vignette of life. An unforgettable experience.

Monday 3rd May

Members £5, Non-members £8

Open Stage

Our guests, who will perform a half hour set each tonight, are:

- Ian Raymond from Kincardine
- Alistair Ogilvie from Strathblane
- The Silver Darlings from Edinburgh
- Tighnamara from Glasgow

Monday 10th May

Members £5, Non-members £8

Tich Frier

We always extend a warm welcome to Tich Frier. He is known for his great voice, driving guitar style and uncontrollable sense of humour. His most recent CD "Shanghaied" has received many accolades from worthy critics around the world. We are looking forward to hearing him again and sharing in his songs and observations from his travels far and near.
