GUEST LIST

February 1999

15th TOMMY SANDS County Down
From Rostrevor in Co. Down, this well known singer songwriter has travelled world-wide delivering his material with a pawky wit, and a great gift with words. His songs have been recorded by numerous artistes and it is a rare treat for us to have him here at the Club. Note: Non-members £4.50

22nd IVOR GAME Middlesex
This is a first time visit to the Club for Ivor. He has built up a good reputation on the London acoustic scene as a singer songwriter. He has taken his music to Los Angeles, Nashville, Ireland and Europe in recent years, but tonight he visits the music Mecca that is Glenfarg. We look forward to seeing him.

March 1999

1st JEZ LOWE & THE BAD PENNIES N.E. England
Jez is universally acclaimed as one of those rare artistes who can consistently sing and write uncommonly good songs. Regulars will know Jez from previous visits to the Club and our Folk Feast. Tonight, supported by the wonderful Bad Pennies, Jez returns to the Club for what will undoubtedly be one of the highlights of the year. Don't be late. Note Non-members £4.50

8th SINGAROUND
Another chance for you to give us a song or a tune or just to sit back and be entertained by our own very talented performers.

15th STAIRHEID GOSSIP Edinburgh
When six women get together its not surprising that "gossip" springs to mind. The gossiping started after some of the six were heard singing at our December Ceilidh. You can perm any number from the six to be on stage at anyone time throughout the evening providing wonderful harmonies. The gossip at the stairheid is "Don't miss it !"

22nd IAN BRUCE
Ian is a big man with a voice to match. Best known as a singer songwriter, Ian is always a popular guest at Glenfarg. He has received great reviews for his recent traditional album. With his fine voice and lovely driving guitar style we're sure you will enjoy the evening.
