GUEST LIST

June 1999

7th SINGAROUND

An informal, friendly and relaxed evening of song and banter. If you fancy performing a song, tune, poem or relating a story this is the night for you.

14th THE CORNER BOYS

Drawing from a large repertoire of songs by some of the worlds finest songwriters, as well as their own fine original compositions, they sing and play with a rakish, wry humour. Lively, powerful, humorous and yet somehow strangely sensitive, their motto is... "Have Diesel will travel - book us before we die!" Rhythm Rock 'n' Folky Dokey, Goodtime Blues & Ragtime Country.

21st DAVID WILKIE & COWBOY CELTIC

On the western plains of 19th Century North America, intoxicating Gaelic melodies drifted through the evening air at many a cowboy campfire. The Celtic origins of cowboy music are well documented and tonight is your chance to hear it performed live. Shake the trail dust from your jeans and mosey along for a great night of music from foot stompin' to hauntingly beautiful.

28th JULIE HENIGAN

As singer, instrumentalist and songwriter, Julie defies conventional categories. A native of the Missouri Ozarks, she has long had a deep affinity for American Folk Music. She plays guitar, banjo, fiddle and dulcimer. There is a strong Irish influence in Julie's music and her vocals are a stunning blend of all that is best in both the American and Irish traditions.

July 1999

4th SUMMER PICNIC - LOCHORE MEADOWS, Near Kelty 2.00pm

5th BLACKEYED BIDDY

A warm welcome back to the club for this well loved pair. Take a mixture of traditional and contemporary songs plus a sprinkling of their own. Guitar, mandolin, and top class penny whistle playing. Add to this a large pinch of humour and you have the recipe for a perfect evening's entertainment.

12th SINGAROUND

An informal, friendly and relaxed evening of song and banter. If you fancy performing a song, tune, poem or relating a story this is the night for you.
