GUEST LIST

March

2nd

Jimmy Crowley

Cork

First class singer/songwriter/musician from the South-West of Ireland. Great humour and crack guaranteed, once you get used to his accent !

9th

Eddie Walker

Middlesbrough

Glenfarg's favourite Ragtime Cowboy. Old Blues, Rags, Hillbilly, Country and Original songs, accompanied by superb guitar and ethereal trumpet !?

16th

Jim Bainbridge & Paddy Forrest

Cork

An early chance to celebrate St. Patrick's Night with this Irish-based duo. A fairly informal evening of songs, tunes and stories in keeping with the wider Folk Tradition.

23rd

Chris Sherburn & Denny Bartley

Tyneside

It is rare indeed to find two such accomplished musicians together, especially when one of them is a tremendous singer as well! A concertina/guitar duo who will have the Club jumping.

30th

Maurice Dickson

Co. Down

It's difficult to find something new to say about this fine singer/songwriter. His driving guitar and stomping beat give his songs a exciting life of their own.

April

6th

Jez Lowe & The Bad Pennies

Tyneside

One of our all-time-favourite performers, Jez last visited Glenfarg with his band at the 1996 Folk Feast. This is certain to be a great night, so come early to ensure a seat.

(Note: Non-Members £4.00)

13th

Robin Laing

Edinburgh

Always a great night with this singer/songwriter. Robin has been all over the World recently with his "Angels' Share" tribute to Scotch Whisky, so we can expect an evening of even higher spirits than normal !

Survivors' Night

A challenging evening for those who have spent an entire weekend singing, playing and carousing ! Be there, or be somewhere else !!

27th

Loose Change

Glasgow

Traditional songs and tunes, accompanied by great humour, from this fine band. They may be new to Glenfarg, but singer Jim Shearer is well known to us from his 'Cruachan' days.
