GUEST LIST

March 1999

- 29th LES BARKER Manchester
Les writes strange poems. His heroes include Jason and the Arguments, Cosmo the Fairly Accurate Knife Thrower and Spot of the Antarctic !! At gigs, when they stop laughing - people can't quite believe what they have just heard. Oil up your laughing tackle - it will be well used tonight !!

April 1999

- 5th TANYA OPLAND & MIKE FREEMAN Alaska / Norwich
Hammered dulcimer, violin, cittern, native American flute, guitar, percussion.... Tanya and Mike bring a night of rich and varied music to the club. The truly unique combination of Tanya's songs and Mike's African and Middle Eastern rhythms always make it a memorable evening.

- 12th EDDIE WALKER Middlesbrough
A great favourite at Glenfarg, Eddie makes a welcome return tonight with his mix of Old Folk Blues, Rags, Hillbilly Country and Original Songs. Eddie started picking those old ragtime tunes on his guitar in the mid 60's and has got better with every passing year. He is a great entertainer and musician who should not be missed.

A Singaround / Session for those who don't know when to stop. It is amazing each year how many hardy souls turn up after the Folk Feast to enjoy a relaxed (for some - more relaxed than others) evening of song, music and banter. It is always a good night, so ignore that hangover - come along and join in the fun.

- 26th COLIN RAMAGE Scotland
Colin has been a regular on the Scottish folk scene for over 20 years. He plays guitar, mandolin, mandola and banjo and performs contemporary and traditional Scottish and Irish songs. A great night for those that like to join in.
