GUEST LIST

1997

MAY

5TH JIM & STEPHANIE WEBB USA

Close harmonies and excellent performance of traditional and contemporary American folk songs from this first-class duo from Kentucky.

12TH JOHNNY SILVO NORWAY

Return of the Sound Man's Nightmare!!!.....an evening of pure enjoyment guaranteed with one of the greatest entertainers on the Folk or any other musical scene.

19TH A.G.M.

Probably the most important evening of the year, this is your opportunity to say how your club should be run - don't miss it!. (Comments from non-members always welcome).

26TH BENTE KURE DENMARK

A warm welcome back to this fine singer, following her success at both the club and the Folk Feast last year. Eminently singable choruses in both English and Danish are Bente's trademarks.

JUNE

2ND ENDA KELLY AUSTRALIA

Originally for Dublin, Enda is now one of Australia's greatest musical exports, highly rated alongside Eric Bogle and Judy Small. His name may be new to you now, but take a good note - you will hear it more and more in the near future!!

9TH MAURICE DICKSON N. IRELAND

Several years ago, Maurice was in the same 'unknown' category at Glenfarg as Enda is now. That he is now a regular performer is a testament to our policy of trying out new names. A superb singer with a stunning guitar technique.

16TH THE JOHN WRIGHT BAND SCOTLAND (BORDERS)

Yet another new name at the club, this band is still relatively new to the Scottish Folk Scene, although the individual members will be recognised by many of us. Their reputation is growing with every appearance.

23RD SESSION/SINGAROUND

A chance for everyone to participate, be you a singer, poet, musician or simply a good listener - always a good evening in a very informal setting.

30TH ANDY SHARKS & JIM RUSSELL SCOTLAND (FIFE)

These two award-winning singer/songwriters are no strangers to the club, where they have been visitors on several occasions. This, however, will be their first time as guests, and this will be an evening to look forward to. Andy and Jim's songs and music are earning an ever-growing band of admirers, including Sangsters and June Tabor.
