

The Internationally Famous Glenfarg Village Folk Club is now in its 27th year and still going strong. We meet every Monday night and offer a wide range of musical acts as well as providing an opportunity for budding performers to 'have a go'. Over the course of a year you can enjoy both traditional and contemporary folk from home and abroad, blues, jazz, ragtime, story telling, poetry and great humour. We are always tracking down the latest talent to break onto the folk scene as well as dusting down some of the golden oldies who have been around for a wee while longer. Every four weeks or so we have a singaround / session at the club (sometimes with a theme and sometimes not). Anyone who comes along gets a chance to perform in a relaxed and friendly environment. Many just come along to listen and enjoy the banter. There is much more to Glenfarg Village Folk Club than Monday nights in the Terrace Bar. Members also enjoy many social events throughout the year including a Treasure Hunt & BBQ, trips to other folk clubs, a summer picnic, a golf tournament, a 'November Weekend Away' where we take over several log cabins somewhere in Scotland and eat, drink and be merry for three days and nights, and every April of course we have our Folk Feast. Our members put a lot of effort into our club and they get a great deal back.

SOUNDSPHERE

Soundsphere are a group of four singers whose speciality lies in their foray into the vocal traditions of many cultures and languages. Based in York, the four women create some unusual harmonies and singing techniques from around the world and across the centuries, drums and percussion help to create an even greater wealth of texture and sound.

Thursday 16th Sep Golf Outing

Milnathort Golf Club. Tee- off from 6pm. Meet for a Meal at Clubhouse afterwards. Phone David 01577830370 to book meal.

Monday 20th Sep.

CLOUDSTREET

Their style is traditional, and includes many original songs and tunes, in a lively and entertaining acoustic act which appeals to a wide range of people and ages. Their ancient ballads and songs are made spellbinding with their daring and sublime vocal harmonies, which create an impression of a third voice. The songs they perform are like chapters from fairytales, some dark and foreboding, and some strange and funny. All brilliant..

Monday 27th Sep.

HIS WORSHIP AND THE PIG

Dave Boulton and Jeff Parton started working together as His Worship and the Pig in 1989, with Jeff setting Dave's words to music. Since then they have built up a set of highly original, often very funny, often thought provoking, but always highly singable songs. They have had enthusiastic responses from all sorts of audiences from folk clubs and festivals to Arts Centres and tennis clubs. Although Jeff and Dave are best known for being funny, their set contains some serious and reflective songs.

Monday 4th Oct

BRAM TAYLOR

Bram hails from Lancashire and calls on a large repertoire of traditional songs together with contemporary and humorous material, performed on acoustic guitar, duet concertina and unaccompanied. With a wealth of experience behind him Bram has his audiences singing, laughing from his infectious sense of humour, and occasionally, shedding a tear or two from some of the poignant songs he loves to sing. A really entertaining evening in store.

Monday 11th Oct.

ANTHONY JOHN CLARK

A gifted guitarist and songwriter, with his gentle Irish charm and ready wit, he can hold an audience in the palm of his hand. Many of his songs are socially aware and of the moment You will find yourself singing along with a chorus you have never heard before and that is always the mark of a well written song. Touring extensively he has taken his music far and wide and with several albums to his credit Anthony John is now a regular and very popular guest at Glenfarg when he is touring in Scotland.

Monday 18th Oct

TOM NAPPER & TOM BLISS

Strikingly original songs and multi-instrumental virtuosity have won this duo high praise from their legion of fans at festivals and clubs all around Britain and beyond. Tom Napper (Vocals, tenor banjo, mandolin, and octave mandolin) and Tom Bliss (vocals, guitar, mandolin, whistle and concertina) combine their excellence to bring you an evening to remember. How will we get all these instruments on to our wee stage, I wonder.

Monday 25th October

MIKE SILVER

The most amazing singer/songwriter you will ever hear and his guitar playing is in a class of it's own. Mike has enjoyed great success of late being featured on GMTV etc and has enjoyed many accolades in the music world, he has toured worldwide. Mike has been a firm favourite here at our club over many years, we always knew he was great and destined for fame and fortune and he has headlined our Folk Feast on several occasions. This promises to be a busy night so please come early to be sure of a seat

Monday 1st November

APRIL GRANT

April is a singer of Traditional songs, she comes from Northampton Massachusetts, and all her life she's loved to sing old songs. She specializes in American Folklore — songs that have sprung up in the states, and ancient ballads that have travelled and changed on the way. Also British and Irish songs and a great collection of songs of the supernatural. She has performed at many major festivals including the NOMAD festival.
