Fil Campbell and Tom McFarland

With songs from her highly successful RTE TV series 'Songbirds' which celebrates the beautiful songs of Delia Murphy, Bridie Gallagher, Ruby Murray, Mary O'Hara and Margaret Barry, Fil's glorious soaring voice and Tom's mesmerising percussion accompaniment make for an evening of sheer delight.

Monday 16th February

Members £5, Non-members £8

Robin Laing

Robin is one of Scotland's premier singer-songwriters. Stylishly penned songs of life delivered with good humour and panache. He has a stack of CDs to his credit and following the success of 'The Whisky Muse' has recently published a new book 'The Whisky River'.

Monday 23rd February

Members £5, Non-members £8

Gareth Davies–Jones

Gareth Davies-Jones, from Northumberland, is building a solid reputation as a singer songwriter who tackles important issues with style and musicality. His latest album 'Water and Light' (2008) has received many favourable reviews.

Archie Fisher

An iconic figure since the early days of the Scottish folk scene. Singer, songwriter, broadcaster, organiser — few can match Archie's wide ranging contribution to traditional music. His latest highly acclaimed album 'Windward Away' in 2008 confirmed that the master has lost none of his appeal.

Monday 9th March

All £3

Singaround Session

This month's theme is Marriage, Men and Money — or anything else that takes your fancy. Come along and share some songs.

Monday 16th March

Members £5, Non-members £8

Janet Russell

Janet has been on the folk scene, originally in Scotland, since the 1980s. Her 'arresting voice (has) a lower register whose distinctive power and edge make dramatic listening.' (Tony Rose, The Guardian). She has performed and recorded both solo and with a number of musical partners and now leads community choirs in the north of England.

Monday 23rd March

Members £5, Non-members £8

Haggerdash

Always popular visitors to the club, Haggerdash are a lively trio whose songs and humour are guaranteed to keep you entertained. Haggerdash, who all hail from Lanarkshire, are Billy Stewart, Davy Lees and David Logan.
