

Monday 18th April

Survivors Session

After a hectic weekend at our Annual Folk Feast we really should give out medals for everyone who still has a voice and the energy to join us for a song or a tune or two. The more the merrier.

Monday 25th April

Tich Frier

After another busy year and a hectic run of fifteen Burns Suppers entertainer extraordinaire Tich Frier has begun work on a new album to be released this year probably alongside a "Live" CD. In order to stop the constant press speculation Tich would like to point out that he will not be playing either James Bond or Robert Burns in the upcoming movie productions. He's too old for one and too knackered for the other. (His words, not mine) We look forward to hearing Tich's exceptional soaring voice and skilled guitar playing in a wide variety of songs old and new, punctuated by some very funny anecdotes both true and false!!

Monday 2nd May

Eddie Walker

A long time favourite here in Glenfarg in the club and on the Festival stage. Eddie makes a very welcome return visit. With acoustic roots guitar and performing original songs and instrumentals featuring old blues, folk, rags, swing and hillbilly country Eddie will bring us all an evening of sheer entertainment. Sit back and enjoy the experience. Eddie also has many recordings under his belt and brings his new DVD Album with him. titled "You better sell it" come along early to be sure of a seat.

Monday 9th may

Claude Bourbon

Thousands of people in the UK and Europe have enjoyed listening to this virtuoso as he plays in over 100 venues each year. and they return again and again to hear and watch him play as his fingers lightly dance over the strings of his guitar and create a unique sound that is Claude. Inspired by music from around the world including Spanish, Middle Eastern, Russian and European. Claude is a virtuoso guitarist and singer, alone on stage armed only with his guitars and voice Claude gains the attention of his audience as they listen to every note he plays. The most frequently asked question at his gigs is" How does he do that"?

Monday 16th May

Glenfarg Village Folk Club AGM

The AGM is your chance to come and vote in the new committee members. It's your club and we do need your presence, your support, and your vote on any issues that come up. You will all get a chance to put forward your own ideas about future social events and the general running of your club.

Monday 23rd May

Johnny Silvo

It's hard to imagine anyone with a more tremendous voice, superb in volume, clarity. tone and versatility. Johnny's wide musical interests and experience are reflected in his massive and varied repertoire, ranging from Jazz and blues through folk to country and soul. including show stopping versions of "My Brother Sylvest" and "Shimmy like my Sister Kate" He intersperses his songs with light hearted humour and chat. He has made around 1000 TV and radio appearances over the years and has played all around the world.

Mon 6th June

John Spiers and Jon Boden

Winners of the best Duo award in the Radio 2 Folk Awards 2004 the originality, conviction, energy and technical ability of this young duo have brought them into the music world spotlight. Jon Boden plays fiddle with an earthy vigour that's utterly compelling and sings in a frantic breathless manner, while John Spiers harmonises and plays urgent, driving melodeon to a very high standard indeed. "The energy and vitality jump out at you and it is this which makes them one of the most inspirational live acts around" Quote from Mike Harding- BBC Radio 2 Mike Harding Show.

Mon 13th June

Lorraine Jordan

Born in Wales to Irish parents Lorraine was influenced from a young age by Irish traditional music in her family. Her thoughtful, powerful and melodic songs reflect her celtic heritage and her contemporary music tastes. They have been covered by many artists including Archie Fisher, Gill Bowman and John Wright. She has released 3 CDs to much critical acclaim, has toured Europe extensively and has a growing audience in the USA and Australia. She has played alongside great performers including Caperceille, Alan Stivell, Loudon Wainright 111, Dick Gaughan and Richard Thompson.

Monday 20th June

Summer Singaround

Come and share some songs, tunes, poems and stories in good company. Our sessions are very popular and as for the music, well anything goes.

www.glenfargfolkclub.co.uk