Ray Moore

Irish singer/songwriter Ray Moore takes his inspiration from all things maritime. With a love of the sea prominent throughout his work, expect highly descriptive, evocative songs, including those of Stan Rogers. Ray was a popular guest at this year's Orkney Folk Festival. He also tours extensively in America.

Sunday 30th August – 2.00 p.m.

Treasure Hunt and Barbeque

Cost £2 per person (includes BBQ food. Please bring your own drinks)

Meet up at 2.00 p.m. at the lay-by on the left hand side of the eastbound A91 between Gateside and Strathmiglo (1.3 miles from Gateside). Look out for the balloons at the lay-by sign, where you will be given your clues. Please bring your instruments.

Monday 31st August

All £3.00

Singaround Session

Tonight's theme is agriculture, armies or anything else that takes your fancy. Join us in the Glenfarg Hotel lounge for a nice relaxed evening in the best of company.

Kate Bramley

Kate is a fine singer and instrumentalist, best known as vocalist and fiddler with Jez Lowe and the Bad Pennies and American band Sweetgrass. She sings songs and plays tunes from the North East of England. Contemporary Folk-Celtic with a hint of old time.

Monday 14th September

Members £5.00 Non-members £8.00

The Travelling People

A band that first saw the light of day in the early sixties and recently reformed after forty years. Roy Bayne, Jack Chalmers, Ian Miller, Jim Miller and Len Woods play Scottish Irish and bluegrass songs and tunes. We look forward to a great night's entertainment when they visit us here at Glenfarg.

Monday 21st September

Members £5.00 Non-members £8.00

Jez Lowe

Almost while no one was looking Jez has become one of the busiest performers on the acoustic folk circuit and his songs are widely sung around the folk world. Jez now tours worldwide and his songs have been recorded by many artistes including The Dubliners and Cherish the Ladies.

Monday 28th September

Members £5.00 Non-members £8.00

Pete Abbott

An amazingly talented singer songwriter Pete writes truly beautiful songs. He is one of those rare artists who can touch an audience with his honesty and sensitivity. Combine this with his clever guitar playing and you have a combination not often found.
