

Glenfarg Village Folk Club

Guest List Sept / Oct 2008

Unless otherwise stated, events take place in
The Glenfarg Hotel, Glenfarg, Perthshire
Starting at 8.30 pm

Monday 25th August

Entry £3 for all

Session / Sing-around

Join us to share your songs and tunes with a harvest theme if you feel inclined or anything you like to sing or play.

Monday 1st September

Members £5, Non-Members £8

Sylvia Barnes & Sandy Stange

Sylvia is a dramatic performer with a wonderful voice accompanied by ace guitarist Sandy. She will be singing songs from her new solo album "The Colour of Amber" plus material both old and new. A treat in store.

Thursday 4th September

Golf Tournament & Supper

At Milnathort Golf Club

Tee off 5.30.p.m, Supper at 7.30 p.m.

Please give your names for golf or supper (or both) to Caroline
Tel 01577 830239

Monday 8th September

Members £5, Non-Members £8

Jim Bainbridge

Jim is a singer and melodeon player who delivers his songs in a relaxed style and with a gentle sense of humour. With several CDs to his name, Jim has appeared frequently at Glenfarg and always goes down well. Originally from Tyneside, Jim is a popular performer at clubs and festivals all around the UK.

Monday 15th September

Members £7, Non-Members £10

Allan Taylor

Allan is considered to be the consummate performer. His songs are faultlessly constructed and beautifully sung with an instantly recognisable voice and distinctive guitar style. Allan is always welcome at Glenfarg and a big crowd is expected tonight. This is bound to be a very busy night. For advance ticket sales contact Hugh Hoffman on 01337 831403.

Monday 22nd September

Members £5, Non-Members £8

The Queensberry Rules

A highly talented young trio steeped in the tradition of the Stoke-on-Trent area. Fine instrumentalists all, but it's the quality of their vocals and harmonies which stand out. Their new album "Landlocked" has recently been released to great acclaim on the "Fellside" label. This is a welcome return to Glenfarg.

Monday 29th September

Entry £3 for all

The Sandy Watt Quaich

This is our annual open singing competition. Sandy Watt enjoyed singing and it didn't matter whether it was a traditional song, a bothy ballad or a song from the music halls. Come along and compete for this lovely trophy which you get to hold for one year. The winner also receives one weekend ticket for next year's Folk Feast to be held on 17th, 18th and 19th April 2009.

Monday 6th October

Members £6, Non-Members £9

Eddie Walker & Fraser Speirs

Individually well respected, when Eddie and Fraser perform as a duo their music reaches an altogether higher level. Eddie is a gifted guitarist, singer and songwriter; while Fraser plays harmonica both solo and with many other fine musicians. A grand evening of blues, ragtime, hillbilly – and much more – is guaranteed.

Monday 13th October

Members £5, Non-Members £8

Bruce Molsky

Bruce has a unique approach to Americana, traditional and old-time songs and tunes on banjo and fiddle. His influences range from the Appalachian soul of Tommy Jarrell through Delta blues to the haunting strains of Irish traditional music and songs. Look forward to a great night.

Friday 5th December

Ceilidh Dance

In the Glenfarg Village Hall at 8.30 pm
Music from Neil & Gail Paterson
Tickets £6 from Hugh Hoffman
Tel: 01337 831403 or pay at the door.