GUEST LIST

2001

April 16th FOLK FEAST SURVIVORS SESSION

If your still standing come along and sing, play or just listen to the talent that is Glenfarg Village Folk Club. Good crack guaranteed after the Folk Feast Weekend.

23rd LORRAINE JORDAN

Lorraine has the resonance and delivery of the great Scots traditional singers and her husky voice wraps itself around her beautiful lyrics. Born in Wales of Irish parents Lorraine's warm personality comes across in her wonderful soulful songs.

30th KENNY SPIERS

Kenny is probably best known to folk audiences throughout the UK as the guitarist in the hugely popular John Wright Band. Kenny appeared at the club last year as a solo artiste and we look forward to a repeat performance of what was a great night. His love of his Border Country is delivered with a mellow vocal style.

May 7th GLENFARG VILLAGE FOLK CLUB 'AGM'

The club's AGM will be held in the Terrace Bar at 8.30pm.

14th ALISTAIR RUSSELL

Alistair is a singer with a strong gritty voice for whom the feeling behind a song is most important. A great sense of humour and accomplished guitarist you'll find an evening with Alistair is a friendly and memorable experience.

21st ED MILLER

Ed is originally from Edinburgh and now lives in Austin Texas. A product of the 1960's folk scene in Scotland Ed's repertoire includes ageless ballads and songs of Robert Burns, as well as more recent songs to keep the folk revival going. He certainly entertains and to a degree educates you in the constants and changes of Scottish life.

28th CATH MUNDY & JAY TURNER

A welcome return to Glenfarg, for this popular duo from down under. Mundy and Turner are a ray of Australian sunshine and they will leave you with a big smile. Their music is unique with Jay's versatile guitar playing and Cath on piano and fiddle combined with their great voices. Come along and be mesmerised.

June 4th BOB FOX

Bob hails from the North East of England and has built up a strong following in the traditional folk scene. His velvet voice delivers wonderful songs accompanied by lovely guitar work and lots of good 'crack'. Come along and give him a warm Glenfarg welcome.
