

The Internationally Famous
GLENFARG VILLAGE FOLK CLUB

Meets every Monday at 8.30 pm
In the Terrace Bar of The Glenfarg Hotel (01577 830241)

GUEST LIST

April 1999

26th COLIN RAMAGE

Colin has been a regular on the Scottish folk scene for 20 years. He plays guitar, mandolin, mandola and banjo and performs contemporary and traditional Scottish and Irish songs. A great night for those who like to join in.

May 1999

3rd ALISTAIR HULET & ROY BAILLIE

Alistair Hulet is a brilliant singer - songwriter with a powerful presence on stage. He teams up tonight with Roy Baillie. Unfortunately due to illness, Dave Swarbrick can't make this tour. However, teaming up with a man who has 'sold out' at the Albert Hall is not a bad replacement. Sure to be a great night.

10th AL HUGHES

Al blends traditional Delta and East Coast Blues with his own compositions to make classics sound original and originals sound classic. Using an arsenal of guitars he produces a variety of moods from fiery to mellow, raucous to gentle.

17th A.G.M.

The most important night of the Club's year. All members are urged to attend if possible. This is your chance to have your voice heard, Non members are welcome to contribute.

24th JOHNNY SILVO

Johnny's visits to Glenfarg are talked about weeks afterwards such is the impression he leaves on people. Above all other things he is an entertainer. He has a voice which is in a league of its own and he uses it to tremendous effect singing Folk, Jazz, Blues, Country and Soul. From the minute he steps on stage he radiates happiness and humour. Come along and give yourself a treat.

31st MAURICE DICKSON

The Club can only go so long before it has another fix of the music of Maurice Dickson. As reported in the Scotland on Sunday "He lifts you up, throws you down and spins you round in a way only a seasoned pro can". His guitar playing will leave you breathless, his songs will play with your every emotion and his wit will leave you with sore sides. Once seen - you'll always want more.

June 1999

7th SINGAROUND

An informal, friendly and relaxed evening of song and banter. If you fancy performing a song, tune, poem or relating a story this is the night for you.

For Information: Athole Fleming 01738 626167 Doris Rougive 01738 583698
or email Duncan McNab at duncan.mcnab@virgin.net