10th EDDIE WALKER

The Middlesbrough Cowboy makes a welcome return to the Club tonight. His mixture of Blues, Rags and Ballads is brought to you with a wild shirt and wonderful guitar playing. Eddie is a born entertainer and guaranteed to make the night go with a swing.

17th SURVIVOR'S NIGHT

Have you got the stamina to make it to the Singaround where voices are just a wee bit hoarse, and eyes are a tad bleary? Always a good night, with lots of singing and a few confessions and tales from the Folk Feast.

24th JEZ LOWE & THE BAD PENNIES

If you want a good seat – come early. That is always the advice when Jez Lowe & the Bad Pennies are in town. Jez tours the world as one of the most appealing songwriters to have come out of the British folk scene. His songs have been recorded by the likes of the Dubliners, Fairport Convention, the Tannahill Weavers and scores more. Tonight he is at Glenfarg – don't miss him.

May 2000

1ST JOHN McCORMACK

John is a 'great' big guy from Indiana, USA, who sings and plays music the whole live long night. He is a phenomenal guitarist (some say he has six fingers on each hand) and his renditions of traditional tunes are quite remarkable.

8th KINRICK

Back by popular demand, Kinrick are a Fife based trio who play a wide variety of instruments and sing a wide variety of songs. If you enjoy a good sing-a-long, an evening with Kinrick is always good fun, relaxed and peppered with lots of joiny-in stuff.

15th A.G.M.

The most important night of the year for the members of the club – this is the chance for members, and non-members alike, to have their say about the club and how it is run. Please attend if you can.
