GUEST LIST

5th August

CAMHANACH

Camhanach are, Mark Carmichael, Calum MacGregor, Jamie McClennan and Andrew Warren who are an energetic quartet featuring vocals, fiddle, piano accordion, guitar, bagpipes and whistles. An exciting band who were a big hit at this years Celtic Connections. It's a warm welcome back to Glenfarg for Camhanach.

12th

IAN WALKER & JIMMY SCOTT

Ian and Jimmy have been singing together since 1994 but between them they have over 50 years experience in the folk scene. Excellent singer/song-writer Ian accompanies himself on banjo and is joined by Jimmy on guitar. Fine traditional performance from this duo of Glenfarg favourites.

19th

RUTH HAZLETON & KATE BURKE

Hailing all the way from Australia Ruth and Kate bring a refreshing and contemporary sound to traditional music and give life to some fine old tunes. Multi-instrumentalists they have been playing together since 1998 .. true songbirds.

26th

COLCANNON

Colcannon started life at a Battlefield Band concert in Adelaide in 1988 and have become one of Australia's best folk exports. This 5-piece band have developed a distinctive Celtic style with rich vocals and dynamic arrangements. Keyboards, guitars, mandolin, fiddle and lots more. Come and enjoy COLCANNON (a Celtic recipe consisting of mixed veg)

2nd September

FINE FRIDAY

Anna-Wendy Stevenson, Nuala Kennedy and Kris Drever make up this fine young traditional band from Edinburgh. Quality singing with quality guitar playing, skills they honed after many a Friday night playing in Sandy Bells hostelry in Edinburgh.

9th

AGRICULTURAL SESSION

It's a Glenfarg session with a theme .. get your thinking caps on and come along with your appropriate agricultural song, poem, story or just to listen and enjoy the banter.

16th

ANTHONY JOHN CLARK

Working as a professional musician since 1991 Anthony now captures his audiences throughout Europe and North America with his unique brand of humour and song. His reflective song of Ireland 'The Broken Years' has drawn praise from many quarters and is testimony to his fine song writing skills. A great Glenfarg favourite.
