GUEST LIST

February 2000

28th SESSION

Our ever-popular Sessions give you the chance to come along and perform, be it sing, play or recite. If performing is not for you, why not come along to listen and enjoy the relaxed atmosphere and banter.

March

6th ARCHIE FISHER

The voice of BBC Radio Scotland's Travelling Folk leaves the studio behind tonight to visit Glenfarg. A stalwart of the Scottish folk scene (for more years than he would care to remember), Archie will delight you with his unique and distinctive voice.

13th ALISTAIR HULLET and AIDAN O'ROURKE

Tonight we welcome back the owner of another very distinct voice, Alistair Hullet. Alistair will be joined by the wonderful young Scottish fiddler, Aidan O'Rourke. A mixture of traditional Scottish and English songs with a smattering of self penned material for good measure.

20th KENNY SPEIRS

Taking a break from the John Wright Band, Kenny joins us tonight at the start of a tour to promote his first solo CD. Bordersong is a collection of traditional and contemporary music from the Scottish Borders and you will be able to hear him perform many of the tracks live tonight.

27th SESSION

Another open invitation to join in at one of our ever-popular sessions. If you fancy performing a song or two... come along and give it a go.

April

3rd JIM REID

Tonight sees the return of an old friend of the Club who is a very popular character throughout the folk scene, namely, Jim Reid. Originally frae Dundee, Jim is a singer / songwriter / tunesmith with many albums to his credit. Tonight he'll be Freewheelin' through some of the old favourites.
