JANUARY

3rd CLOSED

10th SANGSTERS

The 'Fab Four frae Fife' are our first guests in the new millennium. Sangsters have been a great favourite at Glenfarg, and tonight promises to be another fun packed concert with superb harmonies and some right good banter. What better way to get back our singing voices after the festivities than to join in an evening of choruses and well 'kent' songs.

17th ROBIN LAING

Robin is a fine singer/songwriter and regular visitor to Glenfarg. Robin performs on guitar a mix of self penned contemporary work and traditional songs. A recent album extolling the virtues of whisky was a great success for Robin, and with his dry wit and sense of humour, tonight will be a very enjoyable experience for anyone hearing him for the first time.

24th BURNS NIGHT SESSION

Our first singaround of the year gives us the chance to join the celebration of 'The Bard'! Come along and sing, recite a poem, story or just listen...who knows, you might even get a bit of haggis, neeps and tatties!!

31st Double Bill Evening with... ALAN BROWN & JIM KING

The first half starts with Alan, well known to Glenfarg for his work with Heartland Radio and his songwriting. A fine repertoire of folk and traditional mixed with some very funny self-penned work. The second half welcomes back Jim King who played on our 'open stage'. Jim is another singer/songwriter with a talent for humorous and poignant work.

FEBRUARY

7th GRANT BAYNHAM

Describing this man is very easy, so here we go...he's mad!! He's a complete genius on the guitar and sounds like Jake Thackery on speed, only faster! Grant first came to public attention on Esther Rantzen's, 'That's Life' programme on the good ole BBC, since then he's been wowing audiences with his incredibly funny songs and wonderfully unique guitar playing style. When Grant performed at the Club, he gave us one of the funniest nights ever, that we invited him to our Folk Feast. Tonight will be brilliant, so be here and experience it for yourself!!

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY FRIDAY 11th FOLK FEAST FUND RAISING CEILIDH
At the Glenfarg Village Hall featuring Jim Lindsay. Doors open 7.30pm
Member: £3.00 Non-member: £4.00

14th CROOKED JACK'S Valentine Night

Another evening of madness and mayhem with Denis Alexander at the wheel of the good ship 'Jack'. For lovers of subtle ballads and romantic airs, tonight is not your night!! However, if you like your music with lots of energy, humour and good choruses, then you'll love this concert. Crooked Jack are always one of our most enjoyable evenings, and with Valentines night, who knows what Denis will be up to!!

21st ANTHONY JOHN CLARK

This is Anthony's second visit to Glenfarg after making such a great impression last year. Anthony is from Ireland via Liverpool and is a tremendous singer/songwriter with quite a few successful CD's to show for it. Anthony's gentle wit and audience interaction makes for a great evenings entertainment. If you remember Anthony from last year, we are sure you'll want to hear him again. If you missed him last year, then come along tonight and enjoy.

28th SESSION

One of our popular singarounds giving everyone a chance to join in.
