

Monday 3rd January

New Year Session

Happy new year to all of you, Bring your first footers, friends and relations and come and join us for a few songs, poems and tunes to welcome the new year in a relaxed and friendly session.

Monday 10th January

Ian Bruce

One of our favourite singers Ian has been described as the big man with the big voice. With a fantastic voice and brilliant guitar playing Ian is equally at home singing both his own legendary self penned songs and also more traditional material. Highly acclaimed at home and abroad and with a stack of albums to his credit we welcome Ian back and can't wait to hear him again.

Monday 17th January

Pete Morton

English folk singer Pete Morton has been performing worldwide for nearly two decades with his unique and involving style of song writing and traditional singing, With a passionate voice and strident guitar style his songs are an unruly mix of humour, politics, love and social comment wrapping their way around the folk tradition. Pete has recorded five solo albums of original material and a project album of traditional songs. So come along and hear Pete Morton, his songs and performances are a joy

Monday 24th January

Burns night

A Burns session in the Terrace Bar. Bring your friends and Robert Burns songs, poems and tunes or anything else you fancy. There will be haggis and neeps as well mmm!

Monday 31st January

Dana and Susan Robinson

A first visit from American duo Dana and Susan Robinson who make music that is a perfect blend of the old and new, bringing roots and tradition to contemporary song writing. With depth and clarity Dana writes songs about America, the land and it's people. They are truth tellers who sing of our world from the bottom up instead of the top down, and bring to their performances an understanding of America's musical heritage and convey it's significance to our culture.

Monday 7th February

Michael Marra

Widely acclaimed as one of Scotland's most talented and original songwriters and performers As well as his solo act, native Dundonian Michael has performed with his own bands "Skeets Boliver" with his brother Christopher and "Hen's Teeth" whose line up included Dougie Maclean. Theatre and film work was to follow and tours as a duo with poet Liz Lochhead and with dancers, poets and musicians of all types touring all over Europe, USA and Canada. Monday 14th February

James Keelaghan

James Keelaghan has established himself as a singer songwriter with an international following and a compelling ability to tell the stories of himself and his land. It's his passion for history that has inspired some of his most celebrated songs like "Jenny Bryce" "Red River Rising" and "Cold Missouri Waters" Come early to be sure of a seat.

Monday 21st February

Kirsty Magee

Kirsty is no ordinary singer songwriter, having begun performing on the Manchester band scene at the age of fourteen, she moved on to the acoustic circuit and rapidly built her name and reputation, her writing has drawn accolades from many in the media and attracted the attention of fellow musicians like Boo Hewerdine who produced her debut album "Frost"

Monday 28th February

Archie Fisher

One of the Glasgow Boys and Girls of the early 60s generation of the Scottish Folk Song Revival, Archie Fisher has diversified over the last forty years into broadcasting, record production and song writing. Best known to us all as presenter of "Travelling Folk" he regards himself as more of a journeyman musician than a celebrity and is resigned to the advice that Christie Moore gave him some time ago. Christie told him; You'll never be famous because everybody knows you.
