JANUARY

20th The ALLAN JOHNSTON BAND
Good rousing sets of tunes mixed with mostly contemporary songs from this Edinburgh-based group.

27th SINGAROUND
An opportunity for the more reserved singers and musicians to perform in less formal setting and to vie with the old lags who usually give us floor spots.

FEBRUARY

3rd JOHN WATT
A welcome return for one of the true originals of the Scottish folk scene. An unpredictable clanjamfray of songs both traditional and self penned surrounded by patter of quite unique style.

10th DICK WARDELL
Making his first trip to Glenfarg from his Aberdeen base this scintillating Blues guitar player will get you swaying.

17th IAIN MACKINTOSH
What will this dear friend sing this year to make us laugh, cry or rage? You can be sure of being enthralled.

24th HAMISH IMLACH
The most famous chortle in folk music will entertain us with songs ancient and modern with equal measures of honey and acid.
