

GLENFARG VILLAGE FOLK CLUB

meets every Monday, Glenfarg Hotel at 8.30pm

GUEST LIST

1997

January

- 6th NEW YEAR SESSION Welcome to 1997!! The Club brings in the new Year with an informal get-together of singers, musicians, poets, story-tellers and, just as important, good listeners!
- 13th TOMAS LYNCH A welcome return to this Glasgow-based Dubliner. Highly-acclaimed guitarist, singer and piper, much in demand for studio sessions by the likes of Dick Gaughan, Ron Kavana and The Oyster Band, Tomas also spent some time with the popular 'Afterhours'.
- 20th ROSS KENNEDY & ARCHIE McALLISTER The former lead singer from 'The Iron Horse' teams up with one of Scotland's finest fiddlers to present an evening of rousing traditional music, interspersed with excellent contemporary songs and music.
- 27th McGONAGLE SUPPER Alias "Not Burns' Night". Rabbie had 1996 - now it's time for Scotland's other bard to shine!!

February

- 3rd IAN BRUCE Ian's visits have become a regular feature of the Club's season, with his powerful songs ably supported by his strong voice and driving guitar accompaniment. Chase away any Winter blues with a night of great music and unfettered chorus singing.
- 10th GREEN This young duo from Aberdeen are making their first-ever visit to Glenfarg, although many of us will have seen them at various festivals over the past couple of years. Guitar and fiddle combine with two fine voices to produce an exciting, fresh sound.
- 17th GILL BOWMAN It has been far too long since we had the pleasure of Gill's company at the Club. This Edinburgh singer/songwriter/guitarist has toured widely in the past couple of years with her 'Toast to the Lassies' show, and her repertoire includes many Burns influences, nicely blended with her own compositions.
- 24th FEBRUARY SESSION A chance to contribute to an enjoyable evening of songs, stories and tunes. Everyone is welcome to participate, and good listeners are every bit as much a part of the evening as good performers.

Date for your Diary: Friday 11th to Sunday 13th April
