GUEST LIST

1998

January

12th Blackeyed Biddy Moffat/Hamilton

A warm welcome back to this kenspeckle pair, recently returned from foreign climes. First class music and song, interspersed with not a little humour, make for the perfect evening's entertainment. What a way to start the year !!

19th The Cast Edinburgh

With Dave Francis on guitar and Mairi Campbell on fiddle and viola, this top rated duo have built up an excellent reputation over the years. The quality of their arrangements of traditional songs is unsurpassed, while their own material glitters with some true gems !

26th Burns' Night Session

Celebrate our National Bard in a style which he would surely have approved, i.e. songs, poetry, tunes and stories, with maybe a wee bit of the capers thrown in !!?

February

2nd Kinrick Dunfermline

Tonight we welcome friends from Dunfermline Folk Club who have entertained us in various guises over the past few years. This time, they appear as a 4-piece band, and great music is guaranteed.

9th Ken Campbell & Wendy Weatherby Glasgow

A long-awaited return from this fine singer, guitarist and piper. Ken is joined by the excellent Wendy Weatherby on cello, another artiste we have not had the pleasure of seeing for many years.

16th Phil Hare & Penni McLaren Walker England

New names to Glenfarg, Phil and Penni come very highly recommended. Phil is one of the finest and most distinctive acoustic guitarists on the British folk circuit, and a fine solo artiste in his own right, while Penni's songwriting and performance of traditional material have led the duo to be favourably compared to June Tabor and Martin Simpson. This should be a real treat!

23rd Singaround/Session

Another chance to join in a very informal evening of song, music and poetry. A great opportunity to "have a go", in a friendly, relaxed atmosphere. Good listeners equally welcome.

March

2nd Jimmy Crowley Ireland

A welcome return visit from this excellent singer from Cork.
