JULY 16th SONGS of FIFE

Songs of Fife is a collaboration of all that is good about the Fife Tradition. Tonight's line up is Margot Cook, Bruce Davies, Scott Murray and Gifford Lind the driving force behind this group of well kent faces. With such a talented quartet to entertain us this will be a night not to be missed.

23rd JUDY DINNING

Judy is back in Glenfarg short of a few Bad Pennies and with her truly outstanding voice which conveys many shades of feeling she is up there with the best of today's female singers. With songs like 'Maybe' and 'No Goodbyes' coupled with a charming stage presence it adds up to a great evening's entertainment.

30th ANTHONY JOHN CLARK

It's not often a singer/songwriter is labelled 'unique' but it's the only way to describe this talented, charismatic Irishman. On stage he is renowned for his passion and his humour, he'll make you smile and cry all at the same time. Anthony is guaranteed a warm Glenfarg welcome.

AUGUST 6th KJ WAGNER

Singer/songwriter KJ has made her mark playing in clubs and festivals throughout the US and the UK. With her delightful voice, full of joy, sorrow, laughter and tears, she weaves a little magic around your emotions. KJ shares a zest for life with her audiences every time she performs.

13th SESSION

For one reason or another it's been a while since we had a session night so this is sure to be a busy evening full of Glenfarg talent. Come along and participate or just listen and enjoy.

20th JULIA LANE & FRED GOSBEE

A lovely blend of guitar, harp and inspiring harmonies from this very talented duo of singer/song writers coming to Glenfarg all the way from Maine. Julia and Fred present their beautifully crafted songs in a manner that delights the audience. Come along and be captured in their spell.

27th SETANTA

This multi-instrumental group have |Colin MacAllister a fine singer who hails from Northern Ireland as their main vocal backed by some very lively musicians who deliver their traditional music with a kick. Sure to be a foot tappin', hand clappin' night.
