GUEST LIST

June 2000

26th COWBOY CELTIC

Tonight Cowboy Celtic makes a return visit to the Glenfarg Corral. Shake the trail dust from yur jeans, mosey on down to the club, get off yur horse and drink yur Guinness, and enjoy a great night of music reflecting the cross fertilisation of cowboy culture and good old traditional Celtic music. Everything from foot stompin' to the hauntingly beautiful.

3rd IAIN MacKINTOSH

It is a great pleasure to welcome Iain MacKintosh back to Glenfarg. He has been a regular visitor at the club over the years and never fails to provide us with a great night of song. His gentle humour, his wonderfully understated banjo style and a wonderful selection of songs makes it in night not to be missed.

Members £2.50 Non Members £4.00

10th SESSION

Another of our popular relaxed singarounds. If you fancy singing, playing, reciting or just listening, you will be made welcome.

Members £1.00 Non Members £1.50

17th IAN BRUCE

Another hardy annual returns to the Club. Ian has become a regular visitor with his powerful songs delivered with an equally powerful voice, accompanied by a driving guitar style. Come along and enjoy a night of great music and unfettered chorus singing.

24th MOSE SCARLETT

Looking like Cat-Weasles's uncle, and with a voice a melodic bullfrog could be proud of, you will have no problem spotting tonight's guest. This man stands out in a crowd – not just because of his looks, but because of his unique and wonderful voice. He sings the classic songs of the 1920's through to the 1950's – like Sweet Georgia Brown, The Moon Is A Sliver Dollar and As Time Goes By. Don't miss this voice – the songs – these whiskers.

Members £2.50 Non Members £4.00

31st KEN CAMPBELL

Tonight we welcome Ken Campbell, a singer songwriter with a long pedigree, to the club. Hailing from Gartocharn by Loch Lomond, Ken has a wonderful voice as well as being a fine guitarist and piper who has a predominately traditional sound.

Members £2.50 Non Members £4.00

7th HEATHER HEYWOOD

Heather Heywood simply has one of the best traditional voices on the folk scene anywhere, and tonight you can hear her in Glenfarg. As well as ballads, Heather sings music hall songs and a smattering of contemporary material. Her songs range from the tear-jerkers to the funny to ones you will be singing for days afterwards.

Members £2.50 Non Members £4.00
