GUEST LIST

17th June CAROLYN ROBSON

Carolyn Robson is no newcomer to the folk music business having released her first album 'Banks of Tyne' almost 20 years ago. Singing traditional and contemporary songs from Northumberland, Scotland and the Borders her strength is her treatment of the slower more melodic songs.

24th June TICH FRIER

Tich is a roving troubadour with a powerful voice and wonderful driving guitar style. What an entertainer, Tich has played around the world for many years and still manages to retain his youthful looks .. how does he do it. Great to have him back at the club.

1st July IVAN DREVER

Hailing from Orkney, Ivan is well known throughout the world of traditional music for his songwriting and his work with Wolfstone. He combines his fine guitar playing with his beautifully crafted songs, and has a keen eye for the traditional piece to complement his own contemporary work.

8th July SYNCHRONICITY

Synchronicity are John Eaves and Debbie Osborne who have been singing together for 3 years. Between them they have an interesting and diverse repertoire of traditional and contemporary music. Harmonies to die for.

15th July SESSION

Session nights at Glenfarg are for everybody .. come along and perform or just listen.

22nd July TAM LIN

Formed in 1999 the band perform music from all over the UK on flute, whistles, violin, guitar and bodhran their sound is diverse and unique they are unmistakably Tam Lin. High powered music with strong confident vocals.

29th July ROBIN LAING

Originally from Edinburgh, Robin is a fantastic singer/songwriter now living in rural Lanarkshire. He loves the old Scots ballads and sings them like he means it with a beautiful resonant voice. Be prepared to be overwhelmed by the urge to join in and sing.
