

The Internationally Famous
Glenfarg Village Folk Club
Meets Every Monday at 8.30pm
In the Terrace Bar of the Glenfarg Hotel (01577 830241)

GUEST LIST

May 2000

15th A.G.M.

The most important night of the year for the members of the club – this is your chance to have your say about what you think of the club. Please attend if you can.

22nd JOHNNY SILVO

He's back again! - One of the most popular guests to visit the club. Johnny Silvo is full of fun with a unique style as well as a unique voice which can rattle doors! He is in Entertainment Mode from the very second he takes the stage. You are assured a wonderful evening when this man is in town.

29th SESSION / SINGAROUND

Another of our popular relaxed singarounds. If you fancy singing, playing, reciting or just listening, you will be made welcome.

June 2000

5th THE SANGSTERS

In January, the dreaded flu bug robbed us of an evening of Fife culture with the Sangsters. However, they have been taking their multi-vitamins to make sure they can attend and entertain us tonight. Wonderful voices, harmonies, banter and good looks sums up what Scott, Fiona, John and Anne are all about.

12th Mr. LES BARKER

This man came to the Club last summer and just took the place by storm. Never have I seen so many tears shed in a folk club – tears of laughter that is. To say that Les Barker writes poetry tells only half the story. Here are some of the titles of his poems to hint at the other half of the story. Cosmo the Fairly Accurate Knife Thrower – Jason and the Arguments – A Cardi and Bloke – I Can't Find My Camouflage Net – I hear the Sound of Distant Plums – 1 Camel, 1 Saw, 1 Conker. – The Beagle Has Landed – Nobody Hugs A Hedgehog – Gnus & Roses. If laughing is something you enjoy, this is a night not to be missed.

19th WILLIAM PINT & FELICIA DALE

With vocals and guitar, mandola, Irish Pennywhistles, percussion and the exotic sound of the hurdy-gurdy, the Seattle duo, Pint & Dale, perform traditional and modern music and songs reflecting the immense vitality of those who live and work on the sea. Anyone who thinks that sea music means "Haul Away Joe" sung slightly off key to the reedly strains of a concertina is in for a revelation tonight

26th COWBOY CELTIC

Tonight Cowboy Celtic makes a return visit to the Glenfarg Corral. Shake the trail dust from yur jeans, mosey on down to the club, get off yur horse and drink yur Guinness, and enjoy a great night of music reflecting the cross fertilisation of cowboy culture and good old traditional Celtic music. Everything from foot stompin' to the hauntingly beautiful.

For Information: Graham Brotherston 01383 738922 Doris Rougvie 01738 583698 or email Duncan McNab at DuncMcNab@aol.com

PLEASE NOTE: Glenfarg Village Folk Club is a Non Smoking Venue