

Glenfarg Village Folk Club

November Guest List

Monday 2nd November

FIONA FORBES & SANDY STANAGE

Fiona, a familiar member of the Fife folk trio the Sangsters, has a wonderful singing voice and a wicked, down to earth, sense of humour. Tonight she teams up with Sandy who is recognised on the folk scene as one of Scotland's best guitarists.

They will be performing some wonderful songs, with just a hint of jazz. It will be a relaxed evening of song with lots of old favourites and lots of humour. Don't miss it.

Monday 9th November

The Sandy Watt Quaich

Every year in November, the Club holds a competition in memory of one of its founder members, Sandy Watt. Sandy just loved to sing, and would perform songs of all types. The event is open to anyone who wants to sing a song. Singers come from all over to take part and the best performer on the night is awarded the 'Sandy Watt Quaich'. The judges are the Club members present on the night and it always proves to be both an exciting and entertaining evening.

Monday 16th November

ED MILLER

Ed uses his rich voice, singing songs of Scotland, from past and present.

Originally from Edinburgh, he now lives in Texas and sings all over North America. He is a much travelled folklorist, raconteur, radio presenter, a damned good singer and guitarist not to mention a great ambassador for Scotland.

Monday 23rd November

PAUL CHERRINGTON & PAMELA WARD

Paul & Pamela present a mixture of music ranging from traditional and contemporary folk to ragtime and blues. Pamela takes the audience through emotions from humour to passion and pathos with Paul's superb guitar playing never detracting from the vocals. Come along and be delighted, amused, moved and inspired by this dynamic duo.

Monday 30th November

St ANDREW'S NIGHT SESSION

An informal and relaxed singaround with a distinctly Scottish flavour. The Club's resident singers, musicians, poets and story tellers entertain, along with visiting performers. Come along and give us a song, or just listen and enjoy the music and banter.

Every Monday night

8.30 pm

downstairs in the Terrace Bar of the Glenfarg Hotel

Come along... we'd love
to see you.

