

The Internationally Famous
GLENFARG VILLAGE FOLK CLUB
GUEST LIST

1996

SEPTEMBER

16th MAGPIE

This excellent duo from the USA are making one of their extremely rare visits to these shores, so miss them at your peril. Undoubtedly one of this year's highlights!!!

23rd DEREK BRIMSTONE

Derek makes yet another visit due to popular acclaim. His material is guaranteed to have you 'rolling in the aisles'. A raconteur par excellence!!!!?

30th JOE MATHERS

No stranger to Glenfarg, this is Joe's first ever 'professional' visit. He has a simply wonderful voice, which he uses to great effect along with an excellent guitar style to perform the songs of his native Ulster.

OCTOBER

7th TONY CUFFE

Now living in Canada, this is Tony's first visit to Glenfarg for over 8 years. He is one of Scotland's most innovative acoustic guitarists, and a fine singer of traditional songs, as evidenced by his recordings with Ossian and Jock Tamson's Bairns.

14th BLACKEYED BIDDY

It's always a great night with Kris and Lionel - great music, excellent songs and the very best of good crack!!

21st BRAM TAYLOR

This first class singer from Lancashire is one of the funniest men on the Folk Music circuit. Another great evening awaits you at Glenfarg.

28th HALLOWEEN PARTY

Come ghosties, ghoulies and all other spirits - the stronger the better!!, to a night of hocus-pocus, mayhem, soggy apples and crushed nuts!!&*$@!&!!!.....Boo!!

NOVEMBER

4th ED MILLER

Once again we have the opportunity to welcome home this Scottish 'exile' from his adopted Texas. Fine songs, a great voice and great affinity with his audience are Ed's trademarks.

THE CLUB WEEKEND AWAY

Friday 1st November to Sunday 3rd November

At The Clachaig Hotel in Killin

A superb weekend of tourism and adventure, mixed with lots of food, shaken with hours of music and good crack and stirred with just a little alcohol.....A recipe for a great time.

(If interested in joining our weekend, see Brenda or any other committee member).
