GUEST LIST

1997

September

1st

Session/Singaround

A chance for everyone to participate, be you a singer, poet, musician or simply a good listener - always a good evening in a very informal setting.

8th

Lucky Bags

Newcastle

Great music and fine harmonies are the hallmarks of this Newcastle-based all-female band. This is their first visit to Glenfarg, following a successful appearance at Killin Folk Festival.

15th

Bruce Davies

Fife

A regular contributor to Club nights, this is a rare chance to hear a full evening of one of Scotland's finest singer/songwriters. Well-known for his treatment of traditional material, his own writing is making an increasing impact on the contemporary Folk Scene.

22nd

Fraser Nimmo

Dundee/London

An exiled Dundonian, Fraser's trips 'home' from London are somewhat of a rarity, and we are delighted to welcome him once again. A fine singer/songwriter, he blends his own material with excellent arrangements of traditional songs, and can slip easily into rhythm and blues when the mood grabs him. A great evening in store !

29th

Alistair Hullet

Glasgow/Australia

Recently returned home from exile in Australia, Alistair is a welcome addition to the wealth of Scottish talent around at the moment. Here, he takes a break from his tour with Dave Swarbrick to give us the opportunity to hear his solo work.

October

6th

Ian Walker & Jimmy Scott

Bo'ness

It has been far too long since we had an evening with Ian Walker. Now, we can hear him with new partner Jimmy Scott. Their material covers many of Ian's popular songs, with some Country/Gospel thrown in for good measure !

13th

Julie Henigan

USA

A new face at Glenfarg, Julie is one of a growing number of American folk artistes with a great love of Traditional Scottish and Irish music, not to mention her native songs and tunes. A fine entertainer, with plenty of talent and lots of humour.

20th

Keith Hancock

Manchester

Described as "the JIMI HENDRIX of the melodeon", Keith has appeared at both the Club and the Folk Feast in the past, but this is his first visit for some time. Powerful songs, powerful music, and a great sense of fun are the ingredients for an exceptional evening!

27th

Harvey Andrews

Staffs.

One of Britain's top performers and songwriters for more than 30 years, an evening with Harvey Andrews is something special. Many of his songs have been acclaimed internationally, and will be a treat for those who have not heard them before. For the rest of us, it will be like meeting a lot of old friends.

November

3rd

Dave Goulder

Rosehall

A warm welcome back to our favourite "biker, hiker, dry-stane dyker". Dave's songs have charmed and entertained the Scottish Folk Scene for many years, with his vast range of work containing some absolute gems. Do yourself a favour - don't miss him !
